SUMMARY

I am a undergraduate 4th year college student who is very hardworking towards my education and passionate about my course and life because I want to be someone. I am 21 years old and lively. I am a member of two university organisations named the PLP - Junior Marketing Association and the JAEMEX Association. In everything I do, I put in an effort and try because I won't know if I can if I didn't try. As a college student, I adapt quickly based on the situation. I am willing to learn more about anything.
